

Species	Size	Main Color	Best Bonaire Habitat	Signature Field Marks
Green Heron 	Small	Darkish body with chestnut	Mangroves	Small, dark, and hunched.
Western Cattle Egret 	Small to medium	White	Grasslands/agricultural fields	Think of a white heron in the pasture.
Snowy Egret 	Medium	White	Salt ponds, coastal lagoons, fresh-water ponds	Black legs, golden slippers.
Little Blue Heron 	Medium	Blue (adult), white (juvenile)	Fresh or brackish shorelines	White when young, blue when grown.
Tricolored Heron 	Medium to large	Blue-gray and white	Salt ponds and coastal lagoons	Blue above, white below.
Black-crowned Night Heron 	Medium	Gray and black	Fresh or brackish water ponds	Compact body, red eyes, black cap.
Yellow-crowned Night Heron 	Medium to large	Gray	Shorelines	Yellow crown, white cheek, heavy bill.
Reddish Egret 	Large	Dark gray with rufous or white	Salt ponds or brackish shorelines	"Dancing" style of foraging
Great Egret 	Large	White	Open wetlands	Large, all white, black legs, yellow bill.
Great Blue Heron 	Very large	Blue-gray	Coastal waters or salt ponds	Immense size